ABSTRACT

This report contains results of Arizona's Instrument To Measure Standards, administered in grade 10 in Spring 1999 and reported in an updated version in this report of March 2000. For each high school, the following information is provided: (1) number of students in the summary; (2) the mean scale score; (3) the median score; and (4) the percent of students at each performance level, whether far below or approaching the standard, meeting the standard, or exceeding the standard. The results are presented in tabular form for reading and mathematics. (SLD)
